

2nd Sunday of Lent

February 21, 2016 A.D.

*The GOSPEL for All Ages

This Sunday, the second Sunday of Lent, the Gospel again speaks of Jesus acting by praying. Going up the mountain with Peter, James and John to pray, Jesus reveals his glory. Prayer puts us before God; we can remember what is best about us; what gifts God has given us and what our own special calls are helping us to grow more loving and merciful with the people in our lives.

Are we watching how Jesus showed us to transform our actions to show love and mercy to others?

Questions by Age Group

Adults: Where do you experience sacred meetings with God?

Older Teens: What do Peter, James & John learn from Jesus on the mountain top?

Younger Teens: What does Jesus appearance in this Gospel reveal about who he is?

Grades 4-6: Who are two people you admire and would like to be?

Grades 2-3: Who helps you to be more like Jesus during Lent?

Grades K-1: What are your favorite ways to pray?

Preschool: When does Jesus pray?

As a Christian community how will we grow in love and mercy during Lent?

Write your weekly Lenten petition, prayer, name, or weekly work of mercy on the attached note and place it on the board in the back of the Church. The board will be placed at the altar. All are encouraged to participate.
