

Feast of the Resurrection

March 27, 2016 A.D.

Rejoice... He is Risen!

With the approach of Easter there is time for reflection, for family and for one another. On Good Friday Easter remains an inspiring hope. At Easter that hope becomes reality. Alleluia.

We cannot live without Easter because we are made for God, for hope and for love. Jesus' rising from the dead shows us that for the Christian, death is not the end. God helps us to overcome sorrow and the limitations of daily living. Our capacity for life opens and we know we live for God and each other.

As Pope Francis reminded us we are all on a journey, walking in the light of the Lord; we are invited to build up the family of the Church. We walk in the presence of the Lord. By making this the center of our lives we will go forward together.

May this Easter bring you a surety and hope that God is with you, that his love encircles you and that he is leading you on your journey.

May the risen Lord be with you always. Alleluia, Alleluia.

—Father Charles

Alleluia! He is risen! Alleluia!

This team effort is what community is all about! A blessed Easter to all!
